

The death occurred on Thursday last at Killarney, Man., of Mrs. Marshall Mason, mother of Mrs. Edward Ovens, of Springbrook. Mrs. Ovens left for the west Saturday last to attend the funeral. The deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Barlow and this is the first break in the family of ten children. The brothers are, Jesse Barlow, of Bonarlaw, John, of Havelock, James, of Kingston, and Robert, of Toronto. The sisters are Mrs. John Burkitt, of Bonarlaw, Mrs. Jas. Beatty, of Stirling, also Mrs. D. Kennedy, Mrs. D. Frost, Mrs. Wm. Rombough, Mrs. McLean and Mrs. Cooper. Mrs. Mason would have been seventy three years old next month.

MARMORA HERALD
28 MAR 1935
PG 5

BONARLAW WEDDING

McFAUL—BARLOW

St. Mark's Church, Bonarlaw, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock when Phyllis Doreen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barlow became the bride of Mr. Nelson Warner McFaul, son of Mr. C. L. McFaul of Consecon.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon W. G. Swayne. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore white embroidered silk net with a white net veil. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Her sister, Miss Margaret Barlow, as bridesmaid wore pink embroidered silk net with a small pale pink and blue flowered hat and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mr. Clare McFaul, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Messrs. Ernest Anderson and Jesse Barlow, jr.

During the signing of the register Miss Madeline Walt, cousin of the bride, sang "O Perfect Love". Guests were present from Kitchener, Ottawa, Toronto, Wellington and Frankford.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, where the bride's mother and Mrs. Thompson of Toronto, the bridegroom's sister, received. The happy couple left by train for Ottawa and other points. On their return they will reside at Consecon.

MARIONA HEALD

532 1940

361

MARRIED

ANDERSON—BARLOW

St. Mark's Anglican Church, Bonarlaw was the scene of a very pretty wedding ceremony on the afternoon of Saturday, March 15th, at two o'clock when Margaret Madeline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barlow became the bride of Ernest Alan Anderson, son of Mrs. F. Charlesworth and the late Mr. Delbert Anderson of Stockdale. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon W. G. Swayne and Mrs. W. G. Swayne played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white sheer chiffon with finger tip veil, halo of white gardenias and carried pink Talisman roses. Her attendants were Miss Jean Barlow, bridesmaid, in pink embroidered net with small flower hat and bouquet of Talisman roses and Helen Charlesworth, flower girl, in sky blue taffeta.

Mr. Kenneth Anderson, brother of the groom, acted as groomsman. The ushers were Mr. Kenneth Stewart and Mr. Elmer McInroy. Miss Madeline Walt, cousin of the bride, gave a beautiful solo, "O Perfect Love".

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents with Mrs. J. M. Barlow receiving gowned in moss green sheer with black accessories assisted by Mrs. Fred Charlesworth, wearing black crepe and matching accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left by train in the afternoon for Toronto and other western points. The bride's travelling dress was navy crepe with jacket of English camel hair coat with matching accessories.

Both the bride and groom are well known in this district and their many friends wish for them a happy wedded life.

Upon their return from their wedding trip they will reside at Stockdale. Guests were present from Kitchener, Guelph, Belleville, Concession and Frankford.

MARMORA HERALD

20 MAR 1941

PG 1

Barlow's Brother Dies

George Henry Barlow, a veteran of the First World War, who suffered from war wounds for many years, died in Belleville General Hospital last day. He was born in Belleville 59 years ago, being a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George R. Barlow, and has lived in Belleville all his life. For 17 years he was employed in the night department of the Canadian National Railways.

Surviving are his wife, the former Mrs. Deane, two daughters, Mrs. Frank MacDowell, of Napanee, and Mrs. Edison Stairs, of Belleville. Mr. Clinton Barlow, of Deloro, is a brother, and Mrs. Fred Stafford, of Napanee, and Mrs. George Wright, of Belleville are sisters.

The funeral was held on Monday, service being conducted at the Thomas C. Thompson Funeral Home Chapel. Interment took place in Belleville cemetery.

MEMORIA HEAD
31 JUN 1952
P65

Lovely Summer Wedding St. Joseph's Church, Belleville

WEESE — BARLOW

St. Joseph's Church, Belleville was the scene of the August 22, 1970 wedding of Ann Elizabeth Barlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice G. Barlow of Belleville (formerly of Marmora), and Timothy Allan Weese of Point Anne, son of Mr. Ross Weese of Point Anne and the late Margaret Weese. Rev. C. Gazeley officiated at the ceremony. Organist was Philip Kirby and soloist was Robert Park.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of corded taffeta featuring a high empire waistline with a self bow and a U-neckline, elbow-length sleeves and A line skirt. Swirls of dainty lace filligree decorated the bodice and sleeves as well as the skirt. A chapel-length train was attached at the back of the waist with a decor of the matching lace and had the same lace applique as the gown. Her headpiece was a cluster of organza roses on a background of peau de soie leaves. The stamens were of seed pearls and miniatures of them decorated the leaves. Attached was a four tier silk illusion veil. Scalloped edges and tiny seed pearls added the final touch.

Maid of honour was Miss Donna Culhane wearing a pale pink bonded crepe V-necked sleeveless floor-length pant dress. Falling from the waist was a partial overskirt of the same material. The neckline and edges of the skirt were trimmed with a pink nylon ruffle and accented by a bow at the centre of the back. She wore white accessories and carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white daisy 'mums.

Bridemaids were Mrs. Sylvia Hibbard and Miss Judy Barlow, sister of the bride. They were dressed identically to the maid of honour in yellow.

Best man was Michael Cook, and ushers were William Hibbard and Alex McLaurin.

For the reception held at the Tops Motor Hotel the bride's mother greeted the guests wearing a beige crimplene coat and dress ensemble highlighted with brown military braid, brown accessories and a corsage of bronze 'mums.

For the wedding trip to points north, the bride chose a sleeveless dress of red and white polka dot nylon crepe, white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. Upon their return the couple will reside at 106 Charlotte Street, Fredericton, New Brunswick.

MARMORA HERALD
2 SEP, 1970
Pg 3

MRS. MARY S. BARLOW

Following an illness of some time, Mrs. Mary S. Barlow, wife of Jesse Barlow, died at her home in Bonarlaw early Thursday morning. The aged lady, who was in her 82nd year, recently celebrated her 61st wedding anniversary along with her husband, at which time the couple were afforded the warm feelings and good wishes of many friends and neighbors.

The late Mrs. Barlow was born in Bonarlaw, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Frost. She spent all her life in that district. The deceased lady had been ailing in health for some 13 years, but it was not until about three months ago she became seriously ill.

Besides her husband, two sons, Morley on the old homestead and William J. of Bonarlaw, survive, also four daughters, Mrs. May Phillips, Frankford; Mrs. Geo. (Pearl) Mumby Springbrook; Mrs. George (Tory) Lough, Mountain View and Mrs. James S. (Emma) Barber also of Mountain View. One sister, Mrs. Frank Flindall of Trenton also survives.

The late Mrs. Barlow was an Anglican in her religious life and during her early life took an active part in the work of the church in the Bonarlaw district.

Respected and loved by all who knew her, the late Mrs. Barlow will be sadly missed in her community.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, August 9th, and proceeded from her late residence to St. Mark's Anglican church, where service was conducted by Rev. C. C. Brazill, of Stirling, in the absence of the rector, Rev. J. M. Brownlie, on vacation. The large number who gathered to pay their last respects, was another evidence of the esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment took place in the 12th Line Cemetery. The pallbearers were grandsons of the deceased.

MARION A HERALD

Happy Birthday, Sweet Pea!

Eva D. Barlow

97 on

Feb. 24th, 1999

MARMORA HERALD
20 FEB 1999
PG 15