DELORO NEWS

BY
MRS. BILL BROWN

David Deering regained consciousness last Friday evening after five days in a coma. David was injured when struck by a car while sleigh riding on the road through Deloro. The youngster was rushed to Belleville where he underwent an emergency operation and then was moved to Kingston where several more operations were performed to save this six year old's life. The injuries suffered by Dave were a fractured skull, bruised section of the brain, broken hip and many less severe cuts and abrasions. A great load was lifted from the inhabitants of Deloro when word was received that David was off the critical list and had been moved to the pediatrics section of the Hotel Dieu Hospital.

Golden anniversary

On Saturday, May 18th, 1985, John and Marie Belanger of London, Ontario, (formerly of 10 Main Street, Marmora) celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Celebrations began with a Mass of Thanksgiving at St. John the Devine Church at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Family and friends attended and took part in the Mass - the readings and the singing of hymns to the accompaniment of beautiful organ and flute music.

After Mass, a social hour was used for pictures to be taken as well as meeting and greeting family members. Relatives came from all parts of Ontario, from Manitoba and as far west as British Columbia.

Dinner was followed by a program of presentations. Pierre Belanger, grandson, acted as Master of Ceremonies and called upon those family members who had presentations to make; the first of which was a nostalgic poem composed and read by son, Guy Belanger, a summation of memories that he and his brothers and sisters could share recalling life while growing up at home with 'Mom and Dad'.

Brothers and sisters of Marie were represented by Raymond King, who outlined in detail, the family moves from the day that they were married 50 sary gifts, one of which was a clock with a lovely picture of the anniversary couple on the face of it.

The attending couple, Cedric and Viny King, were then toasted by Gerald Belanger; as he put it: 'One looks to their elders for that good example while growing up and this aunt and uncle had certainly provided that, not only for their own children, but for all of their nieces and nephews as well'

Further presentations included congratulatory greetings from Pope John Paul II, Governor-General Jeanne Elliot Trudeau (Ernie made no apologies for remaining a steadfast Liberal).

With a final presentation from their children, two wooden rings entwined, holding a picture of them as a couple 50 years ago, and another picture of them today, John and Marie thanked everyone for helping them to celebrate one very grand 50th wedding anniversary.

A dance followed for family and friends (including one lively bingo crowd - friends of Marie).

The next afternoon saw John and Marie hosting their immediate family members in the lounge of the apartment building, where they live. A light lunch was served and one by one they had

THE KING FAMILY

Five generations of the King family gathered at the Union Hall Thursday evening to honor David and Derina King on the occasion of their 60th anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. King of 249 Poplar Street, were married in St. Ambrose Church, Thessalon, on September 13, 1913. Rev. G. Sullivan officiated. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bellerose.

Both Mrs. King, the former Derina Bellerose and her husband were born in Thessalon where they made their first home after the wedding. They moved to Sault Ste. Marie in 1941.

The couple, who are both members of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, raised 13 children: Cedric and Raymond King, Mrs. Mickey Turner, Mrs. Margaret White, Mrs. Theresa Jackson, Mrs.

Adele Wyatt, Mrs. Glenna Browne, all of Sault Ste. Marie, Mrs. Marie Belanger, Vernon, Wayne, and Robert King of Marmora, Ontario, Clayton King of London and Mrs. Yvonne McEwan of Winnipeg.

They now have 64 grandchildren, 36 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Mr. King, who worked for the Algoma Steel Corporation until his retirement 15 years ago, is fond of sports, and used to participate in curling, baseball and hockey.

Mrs. King is an ardent bingo fan and card player.

A mass observing the anniversary was held at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church.

As her attendants, Mrs. King has chosen her sister Mrs. Annie Benkhe and her daughter, Mrs. Marie Belanger of Marmora. Mr. Richard Bellerose, one of the original attendants, was also present for the anniversary.

Mrs. King received her guests wearing a dark blue chiffon gown with bodice of velvet and sheer sleeves.

The couple were presented with a money purse. Telegrams congratulating the couple came from Queen Elizabeth II, Pope Paul VI, Prime Minister Trudeau and Premier Davis.
