ENTERED INTO REST

Lizzie Connors, daughter of the late Patrick and Bridget Connors, aged forty two years, six months and twelve days, entered peacefully into Rest, on Friday, August 8th, 1924, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Michael Gallagher, North Marmora, where she had gone on a visit a few days before the end came. At the age of fourteen she contracted spinal trouble and for the past twenty eight years has been an invalid. Her affliction was borne without a murmur.

A life well spent in perfect faith, unselfishness and thoughtfulness for others and a happy disposition won her many friends.

She is survived by two brothers, Peter, of Palmer, Sask., and John, on the homestead, and one sister, Mrs. Michael Gallagher, of North Marmora.

The funeral which was largely attended, took place from the residence of her sister, on Monday, August 11th, to the church of the Sacred Heart for Requiem Mass, Rev. Father James officiating.

Interment in R. C. Cemetery.

OBITUARY

MRS. PATRICK CONNORS

In the passing away of Bridget Griffin, widow of the late Patrick Connors, at her late residence in Marmora on Monday afternoon, February 25th, 1924 in her seventy-second year. One can truly say, "She was a noble character, whose whole life was spent in good works." The neighbors in the Shannon Settlement, where the greater part of her life was spent, also her many friends in Marmora, mourn the loss of a faithful friend.

Mrs. Connors was a daughter of the late Thomas Griffin and Bridget Sheehan, and was born near Belleville on November 25th, 1852.

In 1872 she married Patrick Connors of Rawdon Township. For four years they lived on the farm there, removing to the Shannon Settlement, Marmora Township in 1876, where they purchased a farm, and spent practically the remaining years of their life until six months ago, Mrs. Connors and daughter Lizzie came to the village to reside.

Her husband pre-deceased her five years ago last August.

She is survived by two sons; Peter, of Palmer, Sask., and John on the homestead, north Marmora, and two daughters, Mrs. Michael Gallagher, North Marmora, and Miss Lizzie at home. One daughter, May, died about seventeen years ago. Although failing in health for a year, three weeks ago her illness was regarded as serious and no hopes held out for her recovery.

The funeral took place from her late residence on Wednesday at 10 a. m. to the church of the Sacred Heart, where Solemn Requiem Mass was said by Rev. Father Traynor.

Interment in Sacred Heart Cemetery.

The family have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

The Stirling News-Argus gives the following particulars of the death of Mrs. Patrick Cain, sister of Messrs. Patrick and Wm. Connors, of Marmora, which was announced in our last issue.

There occurred in the 5th Concession of Rawdon on Tuesday, 2nd inst., one of those sad and mysterious happenings which, fortunately, we are seldom called upon to record as taking place in our vicinity, although in the larger outlook of the world's news they are more or less frequent. At about 10 o'clock a. m. Mr. Patrick Cain went to Minto to get a horse shed, and almost immediately after his arrival there he was informed that his house was on fire. With all possible speed he returned and a couple of friends accompanied him. On their arrival the house and its contents were almost completely destroyed by the fire. Others of the neighborhood had gathered to render what assistance they could, but the fire was far advanced before the arrival of any of them, and no one belonging to the house answered the calls, or could be found until the fire was subsiding. Then was seen the charred remains of Mrs. Cain and her daughter Miss Ellen Maloney who had been burned to death in the fire which destroyed their home.

It is thought that the fire started from a spark from the chimney in the outer-kitchen and was well advanced when Miss Maloney opened the door from the inner kitchen, and was met by the flames and overcome. The fire rapidly entered the main building and burned everything, including Mrs. Cain who had been bed-ridden and helpless for some years.

There was no insurance on either house or contents. A sum of money was also burned in the house. Mr. Cain had only the clothes he was wearing left. Coroner Dr. Bissonnette was summoned, and upon inquiry decided that an inquest was unnecessary and gave the required authority for burial.

As there was no home in which to lay out the bodies, they were taken to the home of Mrs. John Farrell, from which the funeral was conducted on Thursday to the Roman Catholic church and cemetery in this Village.
