James Foley d 6 Nov 1896, age 74, Lot 3, Conc 13. farmer, born Ireland, drowned cause of death, Dr Dafoe physician in attendance, R.C. Lawrence Foley made return Aug 1897.

b I checked with the Madoc library and they could find no record in the paper of this drowning. James owned no property in Huntingdon at this time, but he and William did have property in Marmora Township and this could have happened there.

② No record of marriage for James & Elizabeth Foley. Checked records - Sacred Heart Church, Marmora, Sacred Heart Church Madoc, St. Michaels' Church Belleville and Ontario Marriages.

③ Parents of Elizabeths are listed and I believe they are buried in the Protestant cemetery in Marmora. There are more children in their family and I will send these when I do the Reynolds family.

④ Film no. 0198023 Extract of Deeds - Huntingdon.

  - ⑧ James Foley applied for Patent on  $N/16$  Lot 4, Con 13, Huntingdon. He withdrew so that his brother-in-law Sidney Reynolds could apply.
  - ⑨ Elizabeth Foley is not buried with James at Madoc, could she be buried with the Reynolds in the Protestant Cemetery in Marmora or a R.C. cemetery in Peterborough.
