Obituary.

There died in this village on the 17th ult., one who deserves more than a passing notice, namely, the late lamented Patrick Gillen, Esq.

Mr. Gillen was one of our oldest and most respected citizens. He lived here for almost forty years, and during that long period of time won the love and respect of all who knew him by his many acts of generosity and kindness. Before the village grew to its present dimensions Mr. Gillen's house was always open to those who had to come here from long distances to do their business. Many a settler in the northern townships can recall the open-hearted hospitality with which he was received by the deceased in years gone by, when we had none of our present commodious hotels, and when in fact the struggling settler had scarcely wherewith to pay for his lodging. To be in need of assistance of any kind was the only passport required to enlist his sympathy, and the many who often appealed to him will now remember him with grateful hearts for his numerous acts of kindness.

Mr. Gillen was a native of the County Antrim, Ireland, and came to Madoc when only nineteen years of age. By pluck and perseverance he conquered the many difficulties he had to encounter, and in consequence soon acquired considerable property. At his death he was owner of that beautiful residence and splendid farm of 150 acres just outside the limits of our village corporation, which are a standing monument to show that the only thing required to succeed in Canada is patience and perseverance. Mr. Gillen was greatly esteemed by all who knew him, and his familiar face will long be missed on the streets of our rising village. His death was a surprise to all, as he was ailing only two days, and most persons never knew he was unwell. His funeral, which took place on Sunday, 18th ult., was attended by almost the entire village, and many from a distance came to pay their last respects to his memory. Rev. Father Collins conducted the funeral service, and preached a most excellent and eloquent sermon suitable to the occasion. He left behind him his widow who has the heartfelt sympathy of the whole community in her sad bereavement. Mr. Gillen was a most energetic and enterprising citizen, and I am sure I speak the sentiments of all who knew him when I say "it will be long before we see his like again."—CONT.

HUBBELL-ENGLISH—On September 26th, by the Rev. R. H. Leitch, assisted by Rev. W. C. Beer, at the residence of the bride's father, Charles English, Esq., Treasurer of Madoc Township, Mary E. to Baldwin C. Hubbell, of Marmora.

Wedding Bells.

The sun shone most brightly on last Wednesday, and many friends and relatives wended their way towards the spacious residence of Charles English, Esq., Township Treasurer of Madoc, to witness the marriage of his daughter Mary E. to Baldwin C. Hubbell, of Marmora Village, at the hour of one o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. H. Leitch assisted by the Rev. W. C. Beer, after which many congratulations and good wishes were poured upon the interesting couple just made one, while Mrs. Leitch discoursed "Mendelssohn's Wedding March." Charles English, Jr., officiated as groomsman and Miss Agnes Leitch as bridesmaid.

The Wedding breakfast being in waiting was participated with heartiness and good cheer the bounties and delicacies of our genial hostess, Mrs. English, were thoroughly enjoyed and toasts were tendered to the Bride and Groom by their respective pastors and to our host and hostess and guests by G. D. Wiggins, Marmora, and Mathew Robinson, Huntingdon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell leaving mid showers of rice &c. were escorted to 4 p. m. train at Malone en route for Ottawa.

The wedding presents were numerous and well chosen and in all must have reached in value about four hundred dollars.—COM.

JOHN GILLEN.

In the death of Mr. John Gillen, briefly announced in our last issue, Madoc loses another of the old pioneers of this township. He was born near Cushindall, County Antrim, Ireland, February 2nd, 1826, and died February 2nd, 1903, exactly 77 years of age.

The deceased came to Canada in 1847. His father died crossing the ocean with fever, known as the emigrant fever of '47 and '48. He settled in Madoc and was married about 47 years ago to Miss McCauley, of Foxboro, who was a native of the same place and whom he had known in Ireland. She has been dead some 16 years. Five children survive.—Alexander and Denis, of Madoc, Patrick of Arden, Mrs. Feeney of Belleville, and Mrs. Brownson of Stirling. Deceased has one brother and one sister living, Mr. Michael Gillen, of Marmora, and Mrs. John St. Charles of Michigan; a brother and sister dead, the late Patrick Gillen and Mrs. Authorson.

The three brothers, John, Patrick, and Michael Gillen were the first discoverers and owners of the celebrated Deloro gold mines, and they operated the first crusher erected on the property.

HYMENEAL

DOYLE—GILLEN

A quiet wedding took place at the Church of the Sacred Heart at 9 o'clock on Wednesday, May 12th, when Miss Margaret Gillen, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gillen, was united in marriage to Mr. John Doyle, of Deloro. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Murtagh. The bride looked very attractive in a navy blue travelling suit with Alice blue hat. Her sister, Miss Ella Gillen, acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Jos. Doyle, of Deloro. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the brides parents, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle will reside at Deloro. The young couple have a large number of friends in Marmora and Deloro, who will join in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

SUCCESSFUL SALE

Mr. Patrick Gillen held a very successful auction sale at his home near Deloro yesterday afternoon. The only unsatisfactory part of the sale was the fact that Mr. Wm. Rogers, who had been engaged to act as auctioneer, failed to appear, but Mr. Gillen made a record drive to Marmora where he was fortunate enough to find Mr. Scrimshaw and the sale commenced about three o'clock. This made it pretty late before it was concluded but the day was an ideal one and there was a good crowd. Everything brought good prices except some of the machinery and a few household articles. The span of matched horses brought $285, and some of the cows went as high as $30, which was a marked advance on prices paid last year. Mr. Gillen has purchased the general store at Deloro from Mr. Doyle and will take possession shortly. With Deloro booming as it is this should be a good business.

MICHAEL GILLEN

An aged resident of the village passed away early Sunday morning in the person of Mr. Michael Gillen. He was in his 88th year and was born in Ireland. In 1847 he sailed for Canada with his parents, one brother and three sisters. His father died on board ship and his mother and the other members of the family first settled in Madoc.

Some time after coming to Canada the deceased married Miss Elizabeth McCallum, who survives him. They made their home in Marmora township and resided there until about twelve years ago when they moved to the village. Besides his widow he leaves two daughters and two sons to mourn his loss. They are Mrs. Feeney at home, Mrs. McNeil, Sudbury, Daniel, of McLeod, Alta., and P. J. of Marmora.

The late Mr. Gillen was held in very high esteem by all classes in the community. He was a devout member of the R. C. church, and his integrity and kindness won the friendship and respect of all who knew him. The family have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

The funeral took place on Tuesday forenoon service being conducted in the R. C. church by Rev. Thos. Murtagh, after which the remains were interred in the R. C. cemetery.
