OBITUARY

WILLIAM J. PHILLIPS

Through the death of William John Phillips which occurred at 7.30 a.m. on Tuesday, the village of Marmora has lost one of its oldest residents. The deceased, who was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Phillips, was born in Madoc township on May 6, 1856. About forty-eight years of his life were spent in Marmora, previous to which he had resided in Stirling. He was fond of recalling the days when he used to draw freight between Stirling and Belleville on his lumber wagon.

Upon coming to Marmora he worked for about twenty-five years on the farm of the late Nelson McWilliams. In later years, in addition to gardening he carried out the duties of caretaker of the Marmora Protestant cemetery, succeeding the late William Knox. He had been in failing health for the past three years so that his end was not unexpected.

He was of a very kind disposition and took a lively interest in the affairs of the village. He was a member of the Anglican church and in politics was a staunch Conservative. He was twice married. His first wife was Adeline McGrow. There were ten children of this marriage, only three of which survive. They are Harry of Marmora township, German of Ribstone, Alberta, and Mrs. J. R. Newbigging of Galt.

Twelve years ago he was married to Mrs. Mary Lavine McQuinch who survives him.

The funeral leaves his late residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon for St. Paul's church, where service will be conducted by the rector Rev. A. B. Caldwell. Interment will follow in Marmora Protestant cemetery.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM H. DARRAH

After an illness extending over several months William Henry Darrah passed away at his home in the village last Saturday afternoon. His great vitality extended his life for some time after it was realized there was no hope of his recovery, but the end came peacefully shortly before 5 o'clock on Saturday. The deceased was in his 80th year and was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Darrah, the latter's maiden name being Lucinda Terrion. He was born in Marmora township and lived there nearly all his life until about nine years ago, when he moved to the village to reside with his son, William.

The late William Darrah was an expert trapper, hunter and fisherman and a noted axeman. In the days when lumbering was carried on extensively throughout the district and wood was about the only kind of fuel used around here, he was noted for the amount of wood he could cut in a day or the trees he could fell. He was also very expert with a rifle and always knew the best place to find fish or game. For many years he lived a very active life and did a lot of hard work. He was well known in the lumber camps and among various groups of hunters which frequented the township in past years.

The deceased was twice married. His first wife was Mary Ann McQuigge, of Belmont township, and the wedding took place at Wellman's Corners. She only lived a comparatively short time. Afterwards he married Margaret Lagrow, of Stirling, who survives him. He is also survived by seven daughters and two sons, as follows: Mrs. Harry Phillips, Marmora township; Mrs. Sanford Lawrence, Marmora; Mrs. John Andrews, Bonarlaw; Mrs. Edward Crilley, Mrs. Wesley Vancott, Mrs. Fred Thompson and Mrs. Arthur Carey, all of Toronto; William, of Marmora; and Joseph, of Springbrook. Another daughter, Mrs. Arthur McKenzie, perished in a fire at Halleybury in 1916. He is further survived by two brothers: Isadore, of Niagara Falls, Ont., and George, of Rochester, and one sister, Mrs. Samuel Moffatt, of Marmora. A sister, Mrs. Margaret Doyle, passed away about three months ago.

The funeral was attended by a large number of friends and acquaintances. Requiem Mass was conducted in Sacred Heart church by Rev. Father J. J. Keeley and interment took place in Sacred Heart cemetery.

Thomas & Joyce -

It has been over a month since we discussed the lineage of the Lagrow family members. Enclosed is my interpretation of the Lagrow's living in the Marmora, Madoc and Stirling area.

I would suspect that this first draft copy is loaded with technical errors. Jeremiah (Sr) , his wife Rose Pilon (also Pealon) and their listing of known children contains two Levi Lagrow's, and Mary Lavine Lagrow's parents are in question. Are they Levi and Mary Pilon or Jeremiah and Rose Pilon as per her obit?

I am hoping that you will expand and correct on the information provided. Please add your lineage to the mix and send back a revised copy of the Lagrow family tree.

I wrote to " Calling all Terrion's & Lagrow's on 7 Jan, 1997, but never received a letter back from Norma Ferrell. I therefore, have added another possible source -

Margaret painted a beautiful oil painting of our Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Marmora. We auctioned it off to raise money for the bell tower restoration and whoever purchased it, gave it back to our parish priest, Father John Brennan. If you phone or write to Margaret , please mention my name and the story of her painting as a means of introduction.

Calling all Terrion's and Legrow's

Dear Editor;

I have recently begun researching my family history and have learned that my ancestors lived in Marmora in the 1800's.

My great-grandparnets were John and Isabel Terrion (nee Quinn) and Jeremiah Legrow (I don't know the name of my other great-grandmother). I believe my grandfather, Patrick Joseph Terrion, was born in Marmora in 1866 and moved to Alberta sometime in the 1890's.

My grandmother, Catherine Sarah Terrion (nee Legrow) was also born in the area, in 1880, and she moved to Alberta about 1906, where she married my grandfather in 1907.

If any readers of the Marmora Herald are decendants of the Terrion or Legrow families, as mentioned above, I would be very glad to hear from you. I am very interested in learning more about my ancestors and where they camefrom and would be more than willing to share the information I have with any family member who is interested.

Your very truly,
