

Presentations to Mr. W. Mantle

Mr. Wm. Mantle, who had been an employee of Deloro Smelting & Refining Company Limited for about twenty-three years is moving to Trenton today, where he will take up his residence. He first started to work at Deloro when the late P. Kirkegaard was the manager and had been there ever since, so that he was one of the oldest employees of the Company.

On Saturday evening members of the audit and office staffs met at the home of Mr. A. V. Yates and presented Mr. Mantle with a handsome arm chair as a token of their esteem. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

On Monday afternoon the members of the operating staff and a number of the older employees of the Company gathered to bid Mr. Mantle farewell. Mr. R. A. Elliott, on behalf of those assembled, expressed their regret over Mr. Mantle's departure and referred to the pleasant relations which had existed between him and the other employees of the Company. Mr. S. B. Wright expressed appreciation of the long service of Mr. Mantle with the Company and on behalf of those assembled presented him with a purse of gold.

Mr. Mantle briefly expressed his thanks for the evidences of good-will which he had received.

Mrs. Mantle and other members of the family also were given evidence of the high esteem in which they are held. The best wishes of a host of friends follow them to their new home.

Twenty-Five Years Married

On Friday evening, Sept. 6th, a few friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mantle to celebrate the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary with them. The party was a complete surprise, but George and Ivy soon regained their composure and expressed their sincerest appreciation to their friends and family for remembering them on such an important milestone in life.

The family presented their mother with a corsage of pink and white carnations.

During the evening George and Ivy were presented with twenty-five silver dollars symbolic of the number of years of happily wedded life together and asked to buy a gift of their own choice. The family gave them an electric fry-pan and they also received a beautiful silver bread tray.

The ladies of the group served lunch and a beautiful anniversary cake was cut and served to each individual.

At the close of an enjoyable evening, George and Ivy again voiced their thanks for the lovely gifts.
