Given Military Funeral
PRIVATE JONNIE W. BURNS *

Buried Last Sunday with impressive ceremonies.

The funeral of the late Jonnie Williard Burns, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Burns took place last Sunday, April 15th, the deceased being laid at rest with full military honors. A large number of veterans were in attendance from outside points as well as those from Marmora and Deloro and the military procession was an imposing one.

The veterans met at the G. W. V. A. club rooms and then marched to the home of the deceased's parents, headed by the Northumberland Regimental Band, which was in attendance by permission of the Commanding Officer, Major Bogart. The Band is a very fine one and the music added much to the impressiveness of the ceremonies.

From the residence of Mr. Burns the cortege proceeded to St. Paul's church, where the service was in charge of Rev. C. J. Young, B. A., assisted by Rev. T. H. H. Hall, of Madoc, Chap, of the 39th Batt. The order of service was:

Hymn No. 772;

Psalm X C

Anthem

Lesson I Cor. X V, v 20

Sermon by Rev. C. J. Young

Hymn No. 455

Prayers: Collect and Grace

Hymn No. 592

Nuno Dimittis

At the graveside a couple of hymns were beautifully rendered by the Band and a short address given by Chap. Rev. T H. H. Hall. The Last Post was then sounded and three rounds fired by the firing squad, a fitting tribute to one who had served bravely and paid the price of years of suffering and an untimely death, with patience and cheerfulness.

JONNIE BURNS *

The Great War claimed another victim yesterday when Jonnie Burns, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Burns passed away in Toronto. He enlisted with the 155th Battalion in 1915 and served with the 21st battalion in France and after the usual 'training' at Kingston and overseas went to the front. After serving for some time he was wounded in action, his spine being injured so that the lower part of his body was almost paralyzed. He was invalided home and for the past five years has been a constant sufferer. Jonnie has put up as brave a fight for victory over his injury as he did in the trenches, but unfortunately the injury was beyond the help of human skill.

Deceased was 27 years of age and enlisted when 19 years of age. Previous to going over seas he had a large number of friends in Marmora and on his visits home his friends have wondered at his cheerfulness and courage in spite of his suffering.

The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon under military auspices.
