ROBERT EASTWOOD

The subject of this sketch was born on the 12th con. Rawdon 44 years ago, and met death by accidental drowning at Walnapitae on August 17th, 1910.

The deceased was crossing a river in a canoe, and while pushing his way through logs and etc., the canoe upset. He never came up after going down and it is thought he was taken with cramps as he was a good swimmer.

His wife died about five years ago. His remains arrived at the C.O.R. Junction by the 9 o'clock train last Saturday evening accompanied by his brothers, S. and T. Eastwood, and were taken to the old homestead in Rawdon. The funeral took place on Sunday forenoon last, and short service was conducted at the house, and the cortege proceeded to the Marmora Methodist church, where Rev. J. E. Moore, Ph. B. preached an appropriate sermon from Heb. 9-27, viz: "Death and the Judgment," to a large congregation. He leaves to mourn his loss four brothers and four sisters, viz; Thomas, of Hallsbridge, S of Peterboro, A. T. and John of Rawdon; Mrs. J. Strain, of Albany N. Y., Mrs. R. Neil, Mrs. A. Brown and Mrs. A. McEwan, of Rawdon. We extend our sympathy.
