PAUL FRAPPIER - AS YET, THERE IS NO CURE!

Paul Frappier, president of the Marmora Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion, has been struck with a rare illness. Known as Trench Disease, he is but one of very few Canadians to have contacted the germ while fighting in the Korean conflict over 20 years ago. The disease lies dormant for some 20 years before it breaks through the skin causing sores, holes and festering on toes and fingers.

"It is very, very painful," says Mr. Frappier. And unfortunately, as yet, there is no cure for it. He has been in Belleville General Hospital, and Kingston General Hospital, receiving treatments. During his absence, branch vice-president Gordon Bennet of Marmora has been presiding.

CONRAD FREDRIKSON

Fatal Accident at Cordova

Conrad Fredrikson, a native of Norway 42 years of age, who came to Canada when about eighteen years of age, was the victim of an accident at Cordova Gold Mine last Friday forenoon which resulted in his death. He was working at the 500 foot level, protected by a bunk, when a timber fell from the 200 foot level. It dropped with such force that it broke through the bunk striking Fredrikson on the right leg almost tearing it off below the knee and severing an artery. The medical officer was summoned from Havelock and Dr. D. J. Holdcroft responded and rendered first aid but the victim only lived a short time.

So far as is known the deceased had no living relatives, but for about five years he had made his home with Mr. E. J. Martin, Actinolite. For about four years he was employed by Henniger & Scott Construction Company and was well liked by his employers and popular with his fellow workmen. He had also made a lot of friends since going to Cordova Mines.

The funeral was held on Sunday. The service was conducted at the home of Mr. Martin, Actinolite, by Rev. CHARLES FROATS *

Following an operation, which took place in the General Hospital at Niagara Falls, Ont., last week. Mr. Chas. Froats passed away on Thursday, the 15th inst. He had been in poor health for some time and his condition became so serious that an operation was the only hope, but unfortunately he was unable to survive the effects.

Deceased was in his 69th year. He was born at Morrisburg, but when he was quite young his family moved to Blairton, where the iron mine was then in operation. As a young man Mr. Froats worked at Blairton and he followed mining and prospecting in various localities practically all his life.

About twenty-four years ago he moved to Marmora and purchased a property at the east end of the village, where he made himself a very attractive home.

He was a good neighbor and was highly respected by those who knew him best.

The deceased leaves a widow, formerly Miss Charlotte Sweet, a sister of the late Wm. Sweet, and four sons, William, Frank, and John, of Niagara Falls, Ont., and George, of Niagara Falls N. Y. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Wm. Sweet, of Marmora, and one brother, Arthur Froats, of Buffalo.

The funeral took place from his late residence here on Monday. Service was conducted in the United Church by Rev C J. Beekley, and interment took place in Marmora cemetery.

CATHERINE FROST

There passed peacefully away at the home of her step-son, Mr. Geo, Frost, Sidney Township, on Wednesday morning, April 3rd, Catherine, widow of the late Wm. Frost, in her 79th year.

For the last twenty years the deceased resided in the village of Frankford and was highly esteemed by everyone. She was a splendid type of womanhood, most loyal and devoted to her church, which she supported in all its undertakings, and which she did not forget in the hour of her death, remembering it in a generous manner.

The service, which was held in Trinity Church Frankford, where she had worshipped for so many years was conducted by the rector, Rev. B. F. Byers, after which the remains were brought to Marmora for interment. Mrs. Frost will be remembered la Marmora, as she resided here for a number of years. Before she married Mr. Frost, she was the widow of the late Mark Powell.

MRS. KATHARINE FRY

Death came very unexpectedly last Friday morning to Mrs. Katherine Fry, who passed her 76th birthday the first of this month. The deceased was a daughter of the late John and Mary Dingman and was born in Napanee and spent her early life there. About fifty years ago she was married to Willis Fry who predeceased her in January 1924. From the time of her marriage, she had lived almost continuously in Marmora and no other place was quite the same to her as her home near the east end of Madoc Street. Last August Mrs. Fry underwent an operation for appendicitis and she afterwards lived with her daughter, Mrs. Kennedy, at Havelock until a month or two ago. She was around as usual Thursday, but became ill during the day and passed away early Friday morning. She was of a very quiet disposition, industrious, friendly and a good neighbour. Mrs. Fry is survived by two daughters, Mrs. A. Kennedy, of Havelock, and Mrs. A. Hawk, of Aurora, N.Y., and one son, Stewart, of Niagara Falls. Two sons, Fred and John, were killed in action during the Great War. She is also survived by two brothers, William and John Dingman, of Belleville.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, service being conducted in St. Andrew's United Church by Rev. C. W. Hollingsworth, after which interment took place in Marmora Protestant cemetery. Members of Marmora Post No. 237, Canadian Legion, attended in a body and a token of respect to the mother of two comrades, who fell in battle.

The pall bearers were Messrs. W. R. Linn, T. E. Potts, C. Nayler, R. T Warren, R. O'Connor and J. Burns.
