JAMES HICKEY FATALLY INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT *

Marmora friends were shocked at the news of the sudden passing of James Hickey in an automobile accident in Kingston shortly after midnight Saturday morning. Jim was a student at Queen's University and was on his way home after a class dinner on Friday evening. He was driving a car which went out of control and rammed a tree on a boulevard on Ellerbeck street. He was accompanied by a fellow student John David Forbes of Fredericton, N.B. who was taken to Kingston General Hospital and is reported to be in favourable condition. The car was a complete wreck.

Jimmie Hickey as he was popularly known was born in Marmora and was a son of Mr. James Warren Hickey and the former Mary Watson. Mr. Hickey has been postmaster in Marmora for many years and Mrs. Hickey is assistant postmaster. Jimmie was 23 years of age. He attended public and High School in Marmora completing his High School work in Madoc and has been studying mechanical engineering at Queen's University for the past four years. He would have graduated next month and had accepted a position with the Ontario Hydro.

In addition to his parents he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Lewis (Isobel) of Detroit and Miss Phyllis Hickey, at home. He was "a member of St. Paul's Anglican Church.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon from the Howden Funeral Home, Marmora, to St. Paul's Anglican Church where service was conducted by Rev. R. G. Fleming, the rector of the church, assisted by A. N. Laferty, chaplain at Queen's University.

The church was unable to accommodate the large number of friends who attended the funeral and the great profusion of flowers attested to his popularity.

The pall bearers were all class mates from Queen's and were Robert Vlodka, George Carscallen, Martin Shaw, Jack Mills, James Slater and Thomas Harshaw. Honorary pall bearers were Frank Windsor, Cannifton; Arnold Stickle, Battawa; Fred Houchin, Stirling Ross Greer of the R.C.A.F. Trenton; Charles Parret, Tweed; W. J. Barlow, Bonarlaw;

K. C. McDonald, Belleville and J. A. Post, Wellington, Mr. J. A. Edmison, O.C.D.A.; Assistant Principal, and H. G. Gonn, O.B.E., M.S., dean of Faculty of Applied Science attended the funeral accompanied by a large number of students from Queen's, who formed a guard of honour from the funeral home to the Church and paraded to the cemetery.

Temporary entombment was made in the vault at Marmora Protestant Cemetery where Rev. Laberty read the committal Service.
